CHAPMAN MONUMENT SELECTED THIS WEEK

Mrs. Chapman Received $3,000 From the Burlington Railroad for Accident.

The following is from this week's Radio:

The Chapman Memorial Committee had a meeting this week in Maryville with Mr. Hartley of Savannah and selected the monument and placed at the head of his grave. It is to be a splendid monument and one that we will all be proud of. It will do credit both to the churches that have contributed to make it possible and also to the life of our good brother who gave his life for the Cause. The monument is in the shape of a pulpit and will be the finest Barre granite. It will not be placed before Spring. We are happy to have part in such a worthy cause.

The friends of Sister Chapman will be pleased to learn that a settlement has been effected with the Burlington Road. The Company offered her $3,000.00 several months ago and it was her decision and ours that she should accept it, which she did with her thanks. We feel mighty kind to the Burlington for this kind and we believe generous settlement. It will be a great help to Sister Chapman, though as she says, it cannot begin to pay for the loss of this good husband. Money could not do that. We all rejoice in the fact that the matter is settled and that so satisfactorily.

ALL SET FOR TARK-BEARCAT BATTLE

WILL BE FEATURE GAME OF SEASON

500 IF BEARCATS WIN

A Victory in Monday's Game Would Give S. T. C. a Good Season's Record

The feature game of the season, the meeting of ancient rivals, will be played Monday afternoon when the Tarkio College football team will invade the camp of the State Teachers College Bearcats for the annual battle between the two schools for supremacy on the gridiron.

This game is to the College what the Trenton game was to the Maryville High School. It is the one game of the season's schedule which it is paramount to win.

That Coach Maynor's team will win is the belief of every football fan in Maryville. Heretofore the fans have hoped, and that was all. This year it is different. Undoubtedly the best team that the College ever boasted of is wearing the Green and White this year. It is a different team than ever before went under the name of Bearcats. A fighting, smashing, driving aggregation of football players, taken singly and collectively.

That the game will be a battle is conceded. No one is underestimating the strength of Coach Giblette's fighting Tarks and preparations are being made to make the game the feature of the year.

The fray will start at 2:30 o'clock Monday afternoon. Plans have been made to accomodate the record crowd of the year. If the weather man is kind the bleachers should be packed and the sides of the field crowded.

At a quarter till 2 o'clock, a parade, the best ever they say, will start at the Maryville Public Library. Space has been reserved for those participating in the parade so that they will not be crowded out by the fans who come early to get seats.

The College Commerce Club has planned a stunt between halves. The nature of this stunt has not been divulged but it is rumored that it will be something out of the ordinary.

This game means a lot to the men on the College team as well as to the backers of the team. To win from Tarkio has been the goal all season and the players have worked hard and trained religiously to attain this goal.

Last year Tarkio won easily. The year before the long end of the score again was against the Bearcats but all this will be forgotten if Tarkio goes home beaten this year.

But if the Bearcats win, they will win fairly. Coach Maynor has assured this. He has preached and coached fair play and those who have seen his men work this year realize that above all they play clean football.

A win Monday would place the College at the 500 mark in the percentage column for the Missouri Intercollegiate Athletic Association. A defeat would cut them to .333. If a certain turn of fortune would turn some of the other games of the week the Bearcats would stand in fourth place but from the looks of the dope they will rest at fifth.

This week fourteen of the fifteen teams in the association will battle. This brings together in one week more of the teams than ever before in the history of the association. The only team to rest is the Rolla miners.

WILL ELIMINATE FOUR RAILROAD CROSSINGS.

DISTANCE OF 3 1-2 MILES

Work on Icke Hill Near Davis Schoolhouse Is About Completed But That Road Is Open Now.

The state highway commission will receive proposals on November 24 for the work of making the new road on the north side of the Wabash railroad near Wilcox. This road will extend a distance of three and one-half miles and will eliminate four railroad grade crossings near Wilcox and will shorten the distance about one-half mile to Burlington Junction.

The right-of-way for the new road has been secured by the county court with the exception of one place and the court recently started condemnation proceedings against the owner of that land.

The proposed work on the new road includes grading, constructing culverts and wooden guard rail.

The money for the work will come from the appropriation given to this county under the Morgan-McCullough law. All of this money amounting to $60,000 has been expended with the exception of about $12,000.

The work done on the Icke hill near the Davis school house, south of Maryville, is nearly completed. The road was opened last week. It will be completed within the next few days, the weather permitting. All that is left to be done is some grading work.

The new road near Wilcox will be a good improvement.

PLANS TO IMPEACH AT-GEN. DAUGHERTY

PROCEEDING AGAINST CABINET HEAD RENEWED.

URGED BY 2 REPUBLICANS

Woodruff and Keller of House, Say Daugherty Overstepped Authority in Injunction Against Strikers.

Woodruff and Keller were laying their plans today. Woodruff intends to state his charges from the angle that Daugherty has failed to bring the war profiteers to justice and recover millions of dollars which the government lost through war contracts.

Keller intends to make his attack on the grounds of the Daugherty injunction during the rail strike, and Keller says the attorney-general exceeded his constitutional authority.

BONAR LAW BEGINS POLICY OF "TRANQUILITY" TODAY

With Working Majority of 80 Seats In the House of Commons

London, Nov. 17.—With a working majority of at least eighty seats in the House of Commons, Bonar Law with his Tory government began today to fully put into effect his policy of "tranquility." His first act was to dispatch Lord Curzon, foreign secretary, to France to encourage closer relationship and co-operation in the Anglo-France Entente and to make preliminary arrangements for the coming Near East peace conference.

Leaders of the 141 Laborites elected to the House of Commons, said today that they would support all peace measures of the Tories. An important one of the Tory measures calls for the nationalization of the coal mines and railroads.

The feature of the election yesterday, which is still being talked of today, was "the overwhelming defeat of ex-Premier David Lloyd George's candidates."

The new Parliament will convene next Monday and the new members will be sworn in Monday and Tuesday. Included in the new members are three women.

It is anticipated that within a few weeks the appointments will be made to the House of Commons being made open through retirements.

The Laborites will make a strenuous effort to secure the election of Arthur Henderson and supporters of Lloyd George will urge the election of Winston Churchill, who was defeated by the Socialists.

THE AMERICAN IDEA.

It is pretty hard to pick out any one idea that is the central thought of American life. Perhaps the conviction that in the long run the people can be trusted to manage their own affairs, and that the evils of democracy will cure themselves in time, is our most characteristic thought. Such a faith enables people to accept election results that they may not like, with confidence and a feeling that our people will not go far wrong.

The people sometimes make mistakes but they do not go very far on any wrong road. If the men they put in power do not make good, they are put out of office ultimately—if not at once.

In other countries things are different. In Russia the soviet government has not made good, but no way of getting it out of power can be seen, since it controls the army and holds office by force.

Our people cheerfully accept the principle of majority rule, confident that if the majority makes an error, it will see the bad results thereof and reverse its decision later on.

STOPPING TAX EXEMPTIONS.

President Harding, it is said, is to ask Congress for a constitutional amendment stopping the issue of tax exempt securities. The sale of bonds and stocks bearing this privilege enables a multitude of wealthy people to avoid taxation, simply by paying a trifle more for their securities. Also it encourages these folks to put their money into bonds on municipal or state undertakings, when the same is needed more to develop the industries and resources of the country, so that labor can be kept employed and our national advantages utilized.

The privilege of exemption from taxation ought not to be handed out as it has been. All kinds of property should pay a fair share toward the cost of government. The proposition to cease extending this privilege ought to appeal to the people as a whole.

It ain't the guns or armament,
  Nor the tunes the band can play,
But the close co-operation
  That makes us win the day.
It ain't the individual, nor
  The army as a whole,
But the everlasting team work
  Of every bloomin' soul.
—Kipling.

The lion in society is frequently a bear at home.

Since President Harding is to call Congress together in extra session to pass a ship subsidy bill, we may conclude that he has not yet heard the election returns.

One of the best reasons for trading with home merchants is that they are our friends in adversity as well as in prosperity. People who rush off to St. Joseph and Kansas City to spend their money when they are prosperous may get some enjoyment out of their trips and perhaps can find something in a large city that is different from what their neighbor has at home but, if luck or good fortune turns against them, it is the home merchant and not the city merchant who will extend them credit and sympathy in evil days. The stranger in the city may treat us well enough when we have the cash but we must look to the fellows we know in our own home town when our cash runs low.

BARNARD DRAINAGE DITCH BRIDGE NEEDS REPAIRS

The bridge over the new drainage ditch near Barnard is in a bad state of repair, due to the recent high waters. On Monday, crossing except on foot ceased until the waters went down and the extent of the damage was ascertained. It was found one of the main piers or piling on the south side and east end had been completely lifted by the water and was not supporting any weight of the bridge at all. Crossing has been resumed and the bridge is not considered dangerous.

The county court will make an inspection of the bridge and repair it if possible.

$90,000 BOND ISSUE FOR ROADS AT GALLATIN

To Vote On Proposition On Nov. 28—Will Get Like Amount From State

Union Township including Gallatin is going to vote on November 28 on the proposition to issue $90,000 in bonds to improve the state roads in that township. If the proposition is carried another $90,000 from the state roads funds will be secured under the Morgan-McCullough law.

The following is from this week's Gallatin Democrat:

Commercial Club officials and other road boosters are already at work preparing to put complete information before the public so that the voters will be familiar with every angle of the proposition before election day. Compete details will be published next week. Meanwhile, the proposition is explained generally as follows:

The $90,000,000 bond issue is proposed for the purpose of raising money with which to bridge, grade and drain the state roads through the township.

Commercial Club officials have a signed statement from the state highway department guaranteeing to match this amount with another $90,000. And further assurances are given that if more money is needed financial aid will be forthcoming.

Features of the plan which are being stressed are the fact that the largest part of the $180,000 to be spent on the roads will be spent in the township, paid to local citizens who are employed to work on the roads.

Secondly, figures show that the taxes that will result from voting the bond issue will approximately be only sixteen cents an acre per year for fifteen years.

Was 100 Years Old Saturday

(Barnard Bulletin)

Mrs. Benjamin Shaver, born on November 11, 1822, according to her son, Preston Shaver, was 100 years old Saturday, Armistice Day. A celebration of her birthday anniversary was planned and a number of relatives were to be at her home but the bad weather prevented the celebration.

A brief history of Mrs. Shaver as given by her son, is published. Her maiden name was Isabelle Ann Kennedy and she was born in Shelbyville, Indiana. She moved to Illinois and was married to Benjamin Shaver. They later moved to Missouri, settling in Maryville in about 1880, and then to Buchanan County, Platte County, then to Maryville and finally locating three miles north of Barnard in about 1892. Five children were born, all of whom are dead, except Preston, who makes his home with Mrs. Shaver. Mrs. Shaver is unable to remember many of the big events of history during her life, but remembers dates affecting her own life remarkably well.

RAILROADS OFFER LOW RATES TO STOCK SHOW

In order to encourage and enable residents in the sections served by their respective lines to visit the International Live Stock Exposition in Chicago December 2nd to December 9th and he benefited by its numerous advantages, all railway companies operating trains into that city will offer special, low excursion rates to and from the coming show.

This world-famous annual gathering is recognized as the greatest of all agricultural exhibitions. The aristocracy of the improved breeds of live stock, the highest examples of the meat-producer's art and the finest specimens of the plant breeder's skill are there, all assembled in one stupendous aggregation to contest for supreme honors in the court of last resort. Nowhere else on the face of the globe can even the traveler with unlimited means and leisure witness a spectacle to compare with that placed within the grasp of practically every inhabitant of the United States and Canada.

The action of the railroads in granting special inducements to their patrons to enjoy the privilege of attending such an outstanding educational and recreational feast is in deserved recognition of its long record of effective, unselfish service in the cause of a more attractive and prosperous agriculture. Operated not for profit, it has the active support of all agencies interested in agrarian improvement, making it the most influential instrument for the advancement of the basic industry ever known. The fact that the federal and state agricultural department utilize it to place their teachings before the people gives it official standing.

Never has such an opportunity been offered the public to include so many outstanding attractions of both profit and amusement into one inexpensive jaunt as awaits the visitor to Chicago the first week in December. In view of the greatly reduced cost of making the journey to the metropolis at that time through the liberality of the carriers in granting special rates, it is anticipated that untold thousands who have been waiting just such a happy combination of circumstances to pay a long contemplated visit to the great central market will avail themselves of this unusual chance and join the vast merry throngs which will fill the halls of the International Live Stock Exposition from December 2nd to December 9th.

A PUFFED-UP PHARISEE GETS MAD AT A BAD WOMAN

And Jesus Tells Him Plainly Where He is in the Wrong

(By C. L. Ficklin, Editor Dekalb County Herald, Maysville, Mo.)

The Sunday School lesson for next Sunday is about a Pharisee, a woman with a black past, and the Master.

The scene is at the Pharisee's house. Jesus is a guest there. It is meal time. The woman with a black past comes in crying. She washes the feet of the Savior with her tears, wipes them with the hair of her head, and anoints them with ointment out of an alabaster box.

And the Pharisee just pitches and raves. He feels disgraced that the woman has come into his house.

Then Jesus compares the Pharisee and the woman, and forgives the woman.

This Pharisee fellow was a ringster, a gangster. He lived in his own social circle. When he met somebody out of his own circle he pulled his clothes up tight about him so he would not be soiled. Such things as these were true of him—

He mixed only with Pharisees.

He bought milk from Pharisees.

He had his trousers patched only by a brother Pharisee.

In a race for county clerk he'd vote only for a fellow that belonged to the Pharisee gang.

When his daughter Sallie got married he'd invite only Pharisees to attend the wedding.

If he played lawn tennis he'd see to it that the bunch that played was exclusively a bunch of Pharisees.

If a neighbor had double pneumonia with fever running to 104 1-2 he'd be mighty glad to sit up with him, provided the sick man was a Pharisee—otherwise he'd pass the case up.

If a man in the street had been shot and was bleeding to death, he'd pick him up—if the bleeding man was a Pharisee.

And while you are talking along this line it might be well to say that we've got gangsters and ring-proud cliquesters in this day who are that way. If a man is bleeding to death and they are asked to help their first question is not:

"How bad is he bleeding?"

But their first uppermost question is:

"What does he belong to? Is he a member of our bunch?"

I heard a story a little while ago. It stuck with me. A preacher was talking to some of his members. We'll call him Brother Sam.

There was a sick man out in the country, Mr George. He was very sick. It was his last sickness. He was nearing the river. He lived out about two miles.

In the conversation between the preacher and his members somebody asked Brother Sam if he had ever been out to see Mr. George. This is the reply that he made:

"No, he does not affiliate with us."

The glory of the church lies in its willingness to get away from gangism, and take the love of God's children out over bunch lines to heal and help those that bleed and suffer and ache.

Jesus of Nazareth did not have any bunch. His love was not penned in, fenced in, walled in. He was no gangster. His love was as big as the world.

So much for the Pharisee.

Who was this woman who was a sinner?

The word does not say who she was. And since the word has not said who she was, some people have undertaken to splice out the story and supply the identity of the woman—and they say she was Mary Magdalene.

There isn't any evidence at all that this woman was Mary Magdalene. There isn't any evidence in the world that Mary Magdalene was ever at any time anything but a pure woman. Let up stop this injustice to Mary Magdalene. If you have ever joined in this effort to fasten a sinful life on Mary Magdalene, it may be embarrassing to you when you get up into the Glory Land and meet Mary. You may have to apologize to her. You may have to say to her—

"I am so glad to meet the woman who followed Jesus with a supreme devotion; the woman whose love for the Savior in life, in death, in the resurrection constitutes a story and a song to be read by the people of all the ages. I am so sorry that I was one of those thoughtless people that fastened a black past on you."

Let us be square with Mary Magdalene, one of the grandest women the world ever knew.

There is a mighty fine lesson in the manner in which Jesus treated the woman whose sins were many.

She was a penitent woman. Her heart was breaking. She was hungering and thirsting after righteousness and was ready to abandon the other path.

The door of Christ's heart was open to her.

That's a wonderful thing—that open door to the heart of the Master.

When a woman becomes an outcast usually two doors slam shut. She takes the door of her heart and slams it shut against society.

And society takes the door of its heart and slams it shut against the woman. And then turns the key. And then turns the thumb latch.

And when the outcast relents and longs for forgiveness she opens up her heart's door and sobs for society to be kind.

And society keeps its door shut, slammed shut, locked shut, bolted shut—and absolutely won't let the outcast be good.

The Master was not that way, is not that way, never will be that way.

There is a cosmopolitan glory about the love the Master had. There is an outstanding glory too about the openness of His heart to all that hunger and long and yearn for forgiveness and love.

PLANS ARE COMPLETED FOR MISSOURI HOME COMING DAY

The University of Missouri will celebrate its annual Homecoming on November 30, Thanksgiving Day. On that day the Missouri Tigers will meet the football team of the University of Kansas on Rollins Field, in a struggle witnessed by twenty thousand Missourians.

The President of the University, Dr. J. C. Jones, and the administrative officers, together with the Homecoming committee of the students, extend to all Missourians a cordial invitation to come to Columbia that day. They are particularly desirous to have the alumni and former students attend the Homecoming.

Once each year the city of Columbia and the University of Missouri double their hospitable efforts and make ready for the Homecoming. Visitors will find the city in gala dress and eager to entertain them. There will be special trains to Columbia at that time, and special railroad rates.

As usual, a program has been prepared for the visitors. There will be the customary mass meeting and freshman cap burning on the night before the game. The "Breeze Bug," the school's original musical comedy, will be given a special preformance for the alumni. On the morning of the game there will be a parade in which the R. O. T. C. and all student organizations will take part. Each school of the University will be represented by floats. But with all the festivities, the climax of the year's excitement will come at 2:30 in the afternoon when Tiger Spirit is given its fullest expressing in the year's attempt to "Beat Kansas!"

Every year, the people of Missouri contribute huge sums of money for the maintenance of its State University at Columbia. Of the great many who contribute in the form of taxes to this institution, only a small per cent have actually seen the institution that their money has builded. It is hard to visualize the extensive operations carried on there, and it is even more difficult to appreciate that your money is not only spent for buildings and equipment, but in reality is an investment in human society.

This year, as in the past, the University will observe its traditional Homecoming Celebration. This gala day of which you have heard so often, offers an exceptional opportunity to visit this great institution while it is at play. It also gives you an opportunity to be the guest of its stundents and alumni. The program for this year will occupy every minute of time from November 20, at 4 p. m. until midnight on the evening of the 30th. Arrangements are under way to secure Judge Kenesaw Mountain Landis, of Chicago, to give the opening address on the evening of the 29th. From then on, the program will proceed with the gayest galaxy of stunts and freak performances ever before combined in a two day celebration.

The people of Missouri are invited ti visit Columbia on these days. Special rates are being offered on railroads and every attention for your personal pleasure will be available during these carefree days by the students.

MAY MOVE CODE CONVENTION

Constitutional Writers Must Vacate Capitol For Legislature

According to a Jefferson City dispatch in the Kansas City Star yesterday a movement has been started among the delegates to adjourn the constitutional convention January 1, to meet either in Kansas City or St. Louis to complete its work. The convention has been in session since May 15. The delegates have been using the house chamber at the capitol, which must be vacated when the legislature convenes early in January. That will necessitate the renting of a hall to complete the work of the convention if it continues its session here.

C. M. Shartel, president of the convention, said today that he did not believe the delegates would finish the draft of a new constitution by January 1. Nine of the fourteen committee reports have been acted on by the committee of the whole but must be passed on by the convention proper.

Mr. Shartel declared he had a plan which would make unnecessary the adjournment of the convention to Kansas City or St. Louis.

"We have all the committee reports acted on by the committee of the whole," he explained, "and put through the second reading. Then we can adjourn until April, after the legislature finishes its work, in the meantime, the committee on phraseology and arrangement may do its work, which will take a week and probably much longer."

Mr. Shartel's plan is to submit the new constitution to the voters in September or October, next year.

NAVAL PACT WILL COST THE JAPANESE A BIG SUM.

Must Spend $65,000,000 to Conform to Washington Conference Terms, and Undo Years of Work.

Tokio, Nov. 17.—It is going to cost Japan an even $65,000,000 to undo years of work involving millions of yen and many well-layed schemes of statesmen. That is the figure set as necessary to scrap naval vessels to conform to the Washington conference naval treaty.

Recently the Kaga, giant super-dreadnought, once destined to be the pride of the Japanese Navy, and the Tosa, arrived at the Yokosuka navy yard. Both were launched near the end of the Washington conference, and little work was done on them after that. When the Japanese launch a battleship she is supposed to be about 60 per cent completed—at least that was the argument advanced at Washington by the Nipponese delegates.

The battleships Asahi, Shikishima, Hizen, Mikasa, Kashima, Katori, Satsuma, Aki and Settsu and the battle cruisers Ikoma, Kurama and Ikuhi are to go to other scrapping yards to be dismantled. And the total bill will be $7,500,000. Work has been ordered to start immediately.

The other vessels are to be converted into airplane carriers, training ships and possibly one or two will be used as targets. The bill for this will total $25,000,000. In addition, private shipyards will be given $17,500,000 as indemnity for cancellation of the remainder of the famous "eight and eight" building contracts. An equal sum will be divided among the 10,000 officers and men to be discharged as allowances.

Corn Price Not Established

(Barnard Bulletin)

The price of corn this fall is still an unknown figure, very little having changed hands up to this time. It seems that the rising market has caused a large number of farmers to wish to hold their corn for the high price and no price has been established as yet.

A few deals have been made, however, at greatly varying prices. M. F. Kling bought about 1000 bushels from N. L. Pearce of Rosendale and had to haul it himself, for 60 cents. He also bought 600 bushels delivered at his farm from George Baker at 70 cents per bushel. We understand that A. D. Reardon bought a large quantity from Hugh Goforth for 67½ cents. Very little corn is changing hands besides this so far as we have learned. In many instances 75 cents is asked for corn.

To Install a Delco-Light

is not only a step towards building a comfortable home, but it is a business proposition from every conceivable viewpoint.

With DELCO-LIGHT, danger is eliminated to the minimum, whereas, with oil or other systems of lighting, dangerous results are always feared.

Electricity, which Delco-Light produces, can be utilized in the country homes as well as it can be utilized in the city homes, and the more good and well lighted country homes we have, the fewer city homes there will be. To keep the boys and girls in the country homes is to give them modern conveniences. And Delco-Light will represent a most important part in bringing about these results.

Why not investigate Delco-Light and power today?

MUCH CORN BEING FED

The Crop Is Prolific in Hopkins Township and Much of It Is Being Cribbed in Cattle.

Hopkins Journal.

The corn crop this year is a bumper so far as Hopkins township, Nodaway county and Missouri is concerned and the farmers are getting good returns from it no matter whether the corn is sold or fed to cattle and hogs, the grain buyers paying 55c a bushel for new corn and indications are that it will go higher. However, most of the Nodaway county crop is being fed—one man near Hopkins feeding 250 bushels a day—this being Carl Burke on the Jim Strickler ranch who is feeding around 500 head of cattle and several car loads of hogs.

R. A. Turner is another Hopkins man who feeds a good many cattle and hogs and his neighbor, Ed Northover, has just shipped out four cars of cattle, sending the last two loads to Chicago last week where they sold near the top. He now has on feed nearly 300 head of hogs. Geo. Ulmer Jr., a little farther south, has two cars of cattle on feed. Robbins & Renfro are feeding two or three loads, in fact, as stated above, most of the big corn crop here will go into cattle and hogs although several cars of corn have already been shipped from this point.

A marriage license was issued today by Recorder Baker to Hubert Corken of Burlington Junction and Orpha Joyce Farris of Clarksdale.

Engine man—R. C. Rhoads.
Ass't engine man—V. E. Bird.

Man Sentenced to Five Years for Attempted Murder of Wife, Escapes Today

Kansas City, Mo., Nov. 17—Police are looking for Roy Kuehling, who was enroute to Jefferson City accompanied by sheriff S. P. Church and escaped near Pilot Grove this morning by jumping from a Missouri Kansas and Texas train as it slowed down.

Kuehling was convicted of attempting to murder his wife and had been sentenced to five years in the penitentiary. It is belived by many that he may have come to Kansas City following his escape. The posse that had been looking for him has given up search.

Kuehling and Sheriff Church left Nevada, Mo., last night for Jefferson City.

ARTILLERY BATTERY IS SWORN IN LAST THURSDAY.

Burlington Junction Post.

The artillery battery, Missouri National Guard, which has been organizing in Burlington Junction for several weeks, was sworn into service Thursday night, and is now an official unit of Missouri's first line of defense.

The new organization is the service battery of the 128th field artillery, and to date consists of three officers and sixty-five enlisted men. Only forty-one men were present Thursday evening but the others have been secured since that time. The service battery will include the 128th Regimental band, and band instruments will be requisitioned along with the uniforms and other equipment.

The battery was inspected by Captain David L. Ruffner of the United States army and Captain E. A. Mayor of the Missouri National Guard. After the men had taken the oath, the election of officers was held, with the following results: Captain, Lee G. Yaple; first lieutenant, Stuart Lewis; second lieutenant, Berry Hann.

IMPROVEMENT ANNOUNCED BY ST. LOUIS POST-DISPATCH

Announcement has been made that next Sunday's Post-Dispatch will carry two Commic Sections in colors instead of one as heretofore.

The Post-Dispatch, as many of our readers know, was the first newspaper in this territory to establish a comic section, and for many years it continued to be the pioneer until other newspapers recognized the value of the comic features. Now, it is the Post-Dispatch that comes out first with two distinct comic sections.

The Post-Dispatch was the first newspaper west of the Mississippi River to issue a Rotogravure Picture Section and it is now the only newspoper in the territory it serves to operate its own rotogravure plant and press.

Mr. Godsey is now taking orders for the next Sunday's Post-Dispatch and Mr. Godsey suggests that everybody who wants the first issue with the double comic section should see or telephone him today so that he can order a sufficient supply.

To guard your complexion —learn these simple facts

Just as an artist can work too hard on a picture—and spoil it, so a woman can work too hard on her complexion—and injure it.

How many skin troubles come from too much massage, over-manipulation, improper cleansing methods, or the use of unsuitable soap, only physicians know.

Here are a few simple facts you should know about your complexion:

> Your face has also a multitude of what scientists call sebaceous glands which secrete natural fats and oils. Without these the skin would be drawn and rough.
> It is easy to understand, then, that if by mistreatment, or by the use of unsuitable soap, you fill up the pores or dry up the glands, these little organs will cease to work properly and trouble will result.

In order to remove dirt from pores and the skin surface, soap is necessary, for the dirt that accumulates there combines with the oil and cannot be completely removed by any other method than soap-and-water washing.

Wash sensibly with pure, mild soap and healthful, refreshing cleanliness will result.

Ivory Soap cleanses thoroughly without needing to be rubbed in, yet it also cleanses gently without robbing the skin of its natural oil.

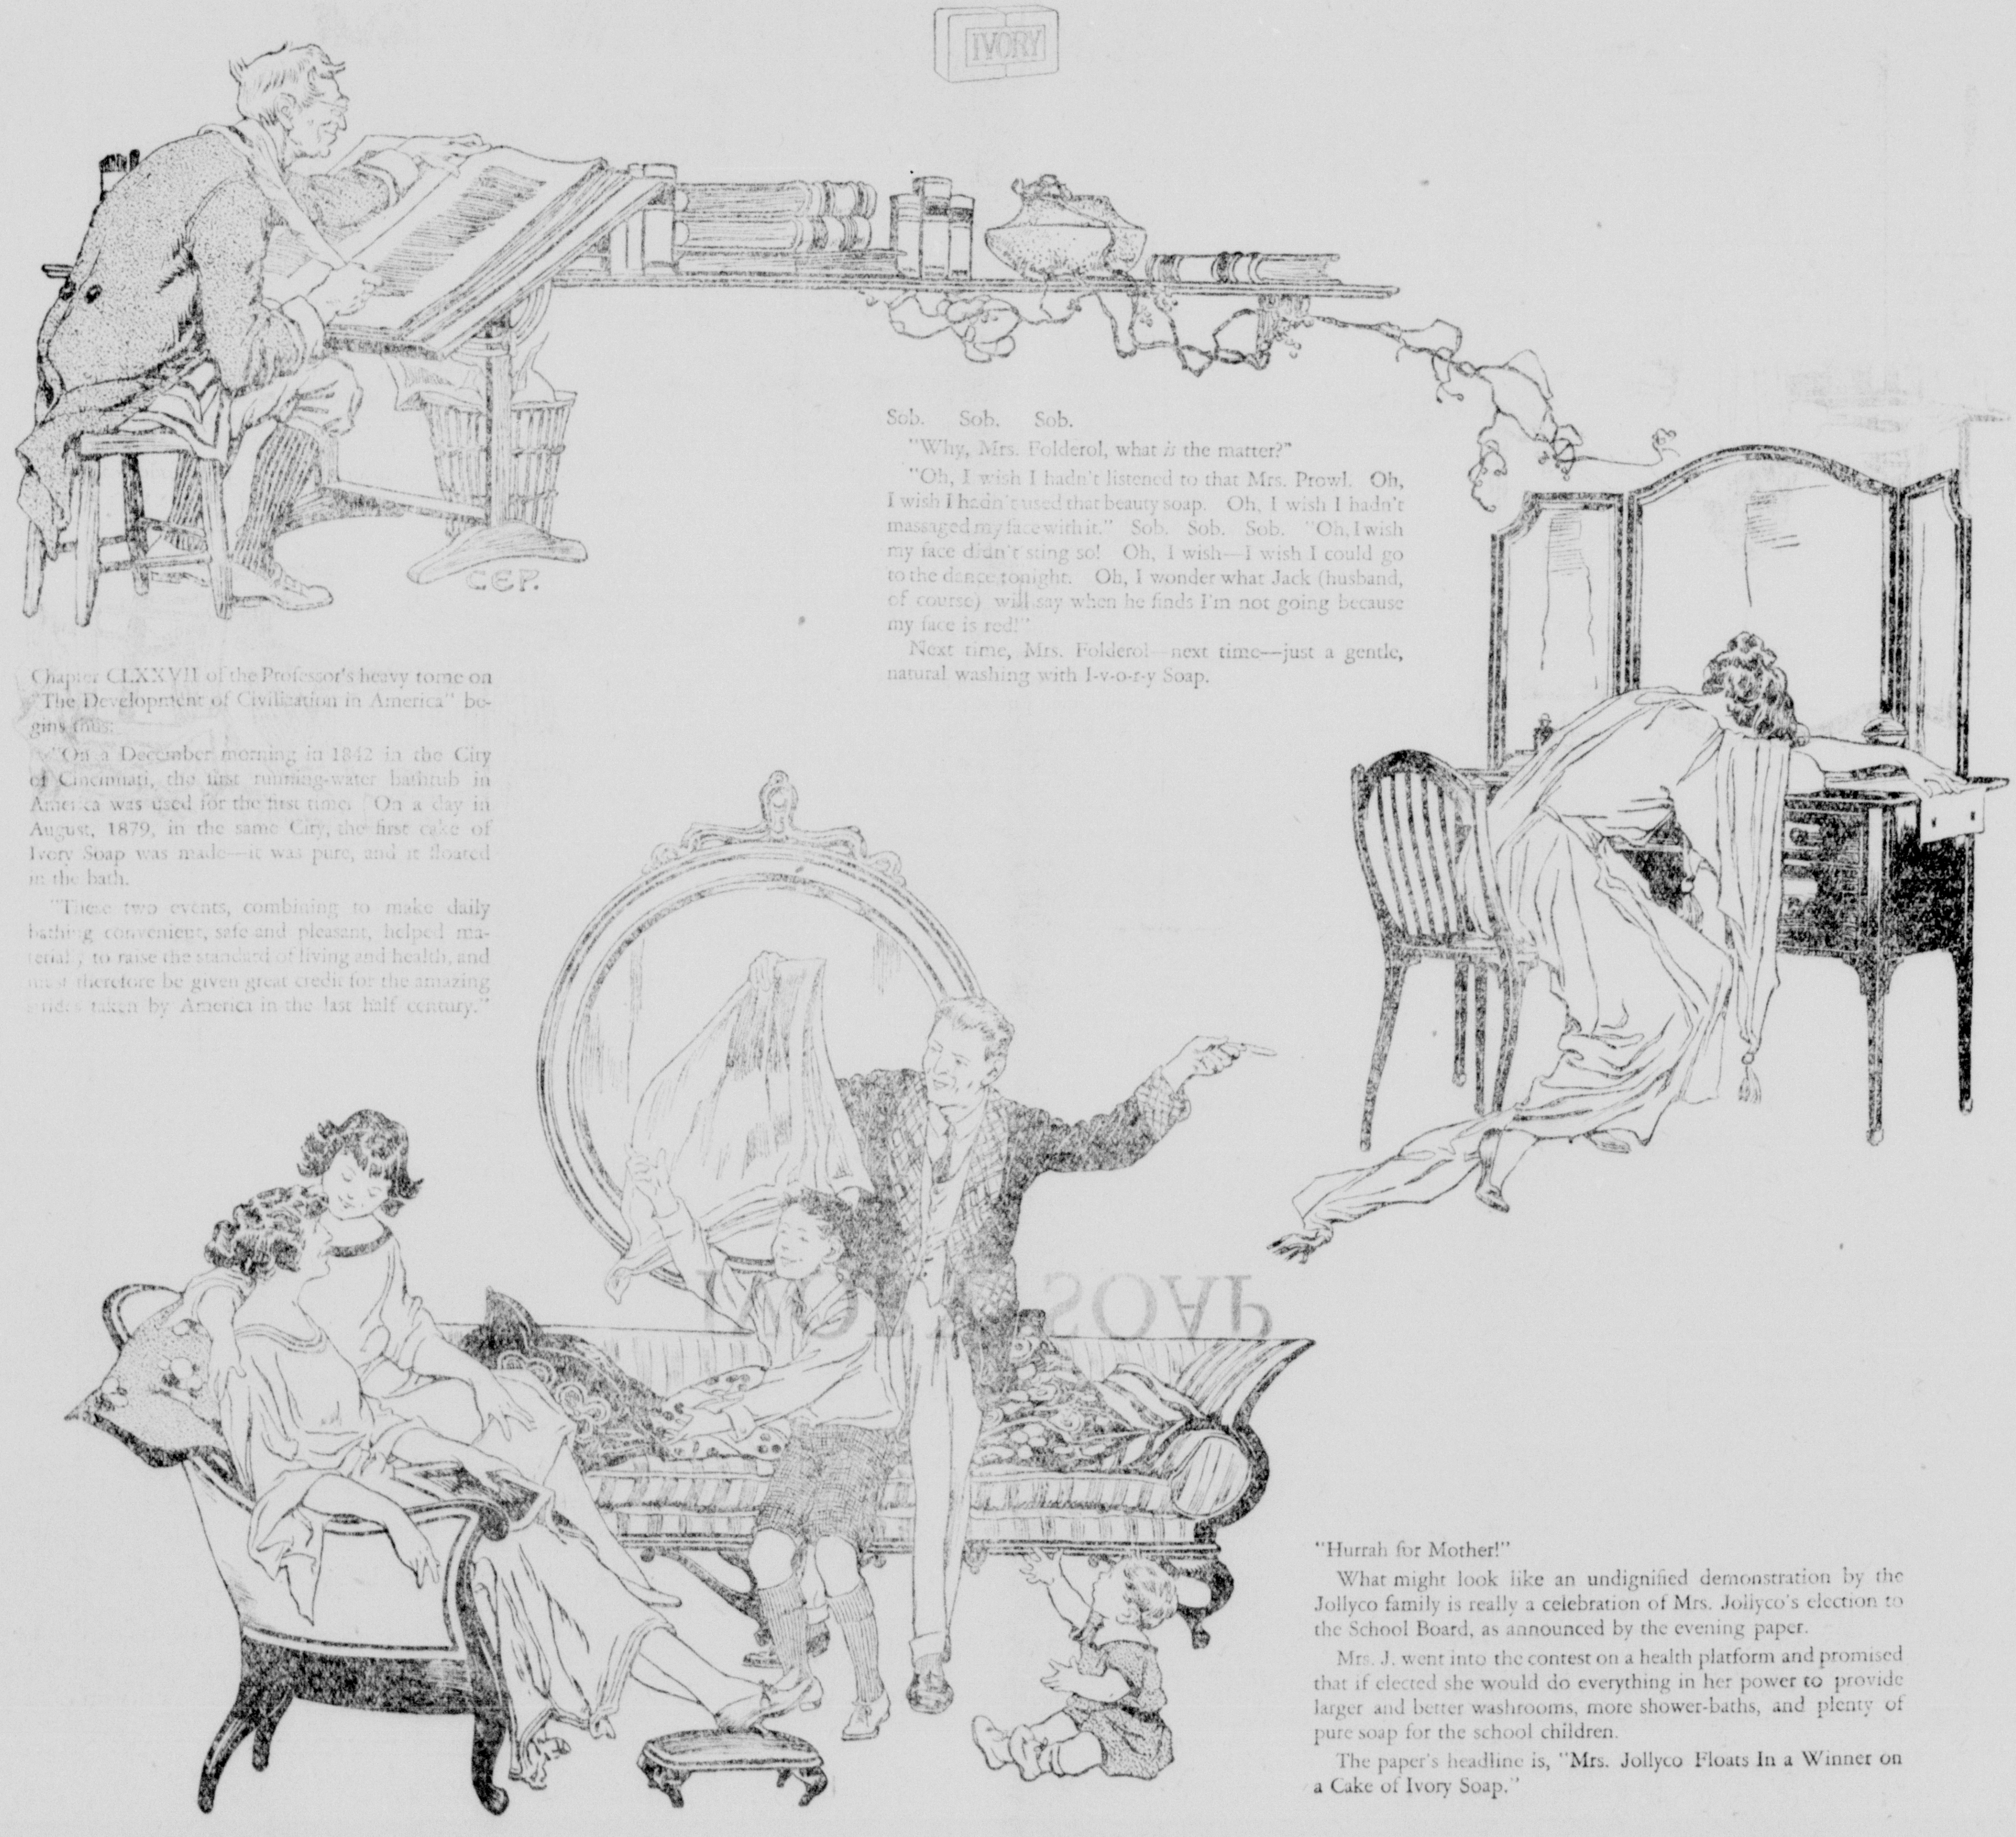
Daily washing with Ivory Soap and warm water, followed by a dash of cold water, is the very best cleansing treatment for your skin.

Ivory Soap is both thorough and safe because it is a pure soap, made of the very finest ingredients blended into a bland, neutral, mild soap of creamy whiteness—just such a soap as the best medical authorities recommend. Ivory's difference from all other soaps is quickly revealed after a few days of its use.

PROCTER & GAMBLE

IVORY SOAP

$99^{44}/_{100}\%$ PURE IT FLOATS



Chapter CLXXVII of the Professor's heavy tome on "The Development of Civilization in America" begins thus:

"On a December morning in 1842 in the City of Cincinnati, the first running-water bathtub in America was used for the first time. On a day in August, 1879, in the same City, the first cake of Ivory Soap was made—it was pure, and it floated in the bath.

"These two events, combining to make daily bathing convenient, safe and pleasant, helped materially to raise the standard of living and health, and must therefore be given great credit for the amazing strides taken by America in the last half century."

Sob. Sob. Sob.

"Why, Mrs. Folderol, what is the matter?"

"Oh, I wish I hadn't listened to that Mrs. Prowl. Oh, I wish I hadn't used that beauty soap. Oh, I wish I hadn't massaged my face with it." Sob. Sob. Sob. "Oh, I wish my face didn't sting so! Oh, I wish—I wish I could go to the dance tonight. Oh, I wonder what Jack (husband, of course) will say when he finds I'm not going because my face is red!"

Next time, Mrs. Folderol—next time—just a gentle, natural washing with I-v-o-r-y Soap.

"Hurrah for Mother!"

What might look like an undignified demonstration by the Jollyco family is really a celebration of Mrs. Jollyco's election to the School Board, as announced by the evening paper.

Mrs. J. went into the contest on a health platform and promised that if elected she would do everything in her power to provide larger and better washrooms, more shower-baths, and plenty of pure soap for the school children.

A Flaked Soap which meets the important safety test

Before you trust your costly fine fabrics to any soap in any form, a doubt naturally comes up in your mind.

"Is this soap really safe?"

Ask yourself: "Would I be willing to use this soap on my face?"

A soap which is too strong for your face is naturally too strong for your delicate and costly garments.

For Ivory Soap, pure, mild, gentle, white—has protected the faces and hands of millions of women since 1879.

Ivory Flakes offers you a real margin of safety for cleansing the very finest garments you own.
